Dear Helen,

I thought that you might like a little bit of history. When I realized that the 50th anniversary of my 1949 MBA from Wharton was approaching, I inquired as to whether not there was to be any kind of reunion. I was told that there had never been an MBA reunion. My wife and I decided to go anyhow and there were a few others that had the same idea. We were greeted warmly and all sat the dean's table.

We strongly urged that an annual reunion be established and I believe wrote an article for the magazine. We suggested that this would also be a good time to encourage future contributions.

I'm am glad to see that things have progressed so well and I am impressed with the brochure.

I wish that I could attend but at age 88 I no longer travel very much.

All the Best,

W D "Bill" Lawson III WG '49

PS: I may be wrong but I do believe that Jeremy Siegel spoke at our reunion. He must be ageless
